Congratulations to Jennifer Wilcox Darger, Vincent A. Errante, Jr., Judith A. Yavitz, Craig Blau and Jonathan Brier Kromberg on their selection to Super Lawyers and Natalie A. Powers and Benjamin Pucci on their selection to Rising Stars.

When Fortune 500 companies face complex legal challenges in the areas of mass tort, product liability, premises liability and commercial litigation, they turn to the Manhattan law firm Darger Errante Yavitz & Blau (DEYB). Whether through litigation, negotiation or trial, DEYB specializes in finding creative and efficient solutions to complex legal issues involving asbestos, benzene, pharmaceuticals, medical devices, Chinese drywall, dietary supplements, talc, cell phones and much more.

With many years of experience, this award-winning boutique litigation firm brings big-firm experience and commitment to every case. With partners who previously worked at some of the biggest firms in

New York City, DEYB has built and maintained a reputation for sterling service. In the area of asbestos litigation, for example, the firm serves as New York City Defense Liaison Counsel, coordinating litigation in the city for dozens of law firms and hundreds of companies. The firm has also been instrumental in helping to secure several high-profile defense verdicts in asbestos cases. "Each of our partners has extensive experience in litigation, mass tort and product liability," says Craig Blau, one of the firm's founding partners. DEYB has received annual recognition with Forbes magazine, New York magazine, U.S. News - Best Lawyers® "Best Law Firms," Super Lawyers, and named Best Boutique Litigation Firm in the USA by Wealth & Finance International.
